Herdman, or Whatever His Name Is, Taken by the Federal Authorities.

When Postoffice Inspector Leatherman read that Harry Herdman, the man of many aliases, captured by the police on Monday last, sometimes assumed the name of Hanson, his attention received an electric shock. He had been in search of one H. A. Hanson for violation of the lettery act in connection with a swindle. His investigations proved that detectives Kinney and Richards had turned up a crook who is nnder indictment in half a dozen States. The postal authorities took charge of him at once, and he was taken before the United States commissioner. Pending his trial next Wednesday, he was taken last night to the jail at Noblesville.

Herdman's scheme was to offer situa-tions paying $100 per month, with head-quarters at Chicago, and promising promotion. The applicants were, however, reuired to file a bond of $1,000 in the American Surety Company, with head-quarters at Windsor, Canada. The fee for filing the bond ranged from $6 to $10, and that was the last the applicant ever heard of his money. Letters for him by the hundred flowed into the postoflice, and when not called for were sent to the dead-letter office. E. L. McMakin, formerly elevator boy at the State-house, was one of his victims. Others were Frank W. Gracie, of Oil City; James DeWitt Vanderford, of St. Louis; L. Stavant, of Chicago, and John D. Reed, of Greencastle. The case will be prosecuted on the Stavent letter. There were over seventy letters sent from the Toledo postoffice to the dead-letter office.

Will Not Ride in Frenzel's Cars. The following was read and adopted at a special meeting of Joseph R. Gordon W. R.

C., Wednesday afternoon: In view of the fact that May 30 has been set sside as a day sacred to the memory of those who gave their lives as a nation's ransom, we de-plore the shamelessness that sets up a circus. with all its ribald accompaniments, in our city on that day; and further, we, the members of Joseph R. Gordon W. R. C., deem the request presented by the president of the Citizens' Street-railway Company to the G. A. R., that they waive their right to the streets of the city in favor of the circus, outrageous and unpatri-otic, and hereby resolve to rebuke the act by re-fusing to patronize Mr. Frenzel's cars on that

Bisot Pardoned.

Dr. Arthur F. Bisot was yesterday pardoned by Governor Chase, after spending one night in the penitentiary. He will remove now to Califtrnia, where he has a wife and children. He returned voluntarily to prison after twelve years of stolen freedom, in order to bring about the only condition on which a pardon could be based. Governor Chase says he had made no promise of pardon in case he returned, and Bisot therefore took a great risk. The case is the most romantic in the criminal history of Indiana.

COLD-WATER WORSHIPERS

Prohibitionists Nominate a Ticket, and Again Think They Are in Politics.

Stole the Alliance Party's Thunder for Their Platform-Somewhat More Moderate on the Matter of Free Trade.

The Ticket.

Governor-REV. AARON WIRTH, of Jay. Lieutenant-governor-C. W. CULBERTSON, Secretary of State-JAMES McCORMICK, of Auditor of State-FRANK TAGGART, of Brown.

Treasurer of State-H. H. MOORE, of Benton. Attorney-General-C. S. DOBBINS, of Martin. Reporter of the Supreme Court-JOHN W. BAIR, of Newton. Superintendent of Public Instruction -- E. A State Statistician-M. E. SHIEL, of Marion.

DEVORE, of Sullivan. Supreme Judge (from Third district)-ROB-ERT DENNY, of Marion.

Appellate Judges-JOHN BAKER, JOHN D.

GOUGER and JOHN B. JOYCE. The Demorest Quartet, more nasal than ever, sung the Prohibition State convention in yesterday, at 10 A. M., with a sawtooth ditty entitled "A Million Votes in Ninety-two," and this was immediately followed by prayer by Rev. Howe. He prayed that "this monster, this gorgon, this leprous, cancerous sore upon the bodypolitic may be destroyed"-alluding to the liquor traffic.

"While we are getting settled," said the chairman, "we will have another song from the quartet. A fog-horn voice announced "We will sing you about Har'son." The Demorest Quartet-it would be rank hypocrisy to say they sung-howled a travesty on Belshazzar's feast, repeating the stale lie about a wine feast at the White House.

The committee on credentials reported seventy-four counties represented by delegates in the convention, the delegates numbering 613. When the first ballot was taken, however, the falsehood in this report was disclosed. There were only a few more than four hundred delegates actually present. The counties not sending delegates were Pike, Perry and Spencer, in the First district; Orange, Lawrence and Crawford, in the Second; Jackson and Scott, in the Third; Ohio and Dearborn, in the Fourth; Jasper and Fulton, in the Tenth; Blackford, in the Eleventh, and LaPorte, in the Thirteenth.

"CONSECRATED PROHIBITIONISTS." The committee on permanent organization reported, naming M. W. Harkins, of Randolph, for permanent chairman, and M. E. Shiel, of Marion, for permanent secretary. The report was adopted, and Mr. Hawkins, in assuming the chair, spoke, in part, as follows: "Years and years ago, in the beginning of my efforts to understand this question, I. with a number of others in the State of Kentucky, used to visit all kinds of temperance meetings and political organiza-tions, wherever we thought we could obtain a recognition and have some favor at least shown the temperance cause. When-ever we went to a political convention and asked recognition we were treated a good deal like a little boy when there is company in the house. It has only been ten or twelve years since the temperance people of this country decided that this thing of visiting political organizations for a recognition of their claims along the line of prohibition should cease. The brewers' conference and all rum organizations would have done as much for us. We have got tired of this years ago. I don't know anything, in my brief history, that fills my heart with more profound gratitude to God and more confidence toward my fellow-man than to see this splen-did array of determined, anxious, consecrated Prohibitionists before me to-day. I want to say that it will not require the keen insight of a prophet into the future to read in the signs of the times today a triumphant victory for the prohibition cause not many years hence. The time is coming when we will understand most thoroughly that the golden rule has a place in politics. We well understand there is something in the Sunday-school and in Sunday-school politics that is of a most bealthy character and will purge this country of the disgraceful scenes that have been witnessed in political conventions. The problem will be solved by the Prohibition party with a convention in which our wives, mothers and sisters can sit and where all shall be respected. Out of these clean, respectable political conventions will issue a spirit that will reform the ballot-box and make it possible for our sisters, wives and mothers to go to the ballot-box and be respected. We are tired of the cor-rupting influences of this country holding and swaying every political convention and all the deliberations of the people."

On motion of Eli F. Ritter, of Marion, telegraphic messages of greeting were sent to Ohio and California, where State Prohi-bition conventions are in session. A congratulatory telegram was read from the Camfornia State Prohibition convention. Mr. McWherter, of Marion, introduced a resolution resolving that we favor Sunday closing of the Columbian exposition, and denounce the granting of privileges to liquor-dealers and manufacturers." The resolution was adopted with much enthusi-

The committee on organization reported the order of business, the third paragraph of which caused considerable doubt as to its meaning. This paragraph provided "that all delegates present from each district shall cast the entire vote of the dis-

Mr. Brewer, of Cass, wanted to know what that meant, and Mr. Low, of Cass, moved that only the votes of the delegates present should be cast, and no proxies. Mr. Devore, of Sullivan, in an attempt to make matters clear and help out the chairman, opened a parliamentary maelstrom which bade fair to engulf the convention. A female delegate from Tippecanoe, shriek-ing like a water wraith, did not make mat-ters any better. It was finally settled that only the delegates actually present should be entitled to vote and have their votes

THE PLATFORM.

T. E. Ballard, of Montgomery, chairman of the committee on resolutions, then read the platform, which was adopted. There were a few votes against its adoption, and several delegates felt sore that they were not given opportunity to discuss some parts of it. The platform reads as follows:

nations, and recognizing the people as the true source of political power, and affirming that all legislation should be in the interest of all the people, and appealing to the patriotism of our citizens, the Prohibition party of Indiana adopts the following platform: 1. We declare that the traffic in alcoholic beverages should be made a public crime and adequately punished as such, and that the man-

Believing in Almighty God as the ruler of the ufacture, importation, exportation and trans-pertation of such beverages should be prohibited Believing that all class legislation is wrong and that "equal rights to all and special privileges to none" should be the motto of our government in all its relations to the people, therefore we declare that the general government, without the intervention of banks, should issue the circulating medium of a sufficient volume for the transaction of the business of the country in a manner which will be just to the debtor as well as the creditor class. Said circulating medium to consist of gold and silver coin and United States treasury notes, each to be a full legal tender for all debts, public and private, and each to be taxable. 3. We favor the government control in the interest of the people, to the extent of ownership, if necessary, of the public means of transportation and communication.

4. We favor such a graduated system of taxation as will place the burdens of government in just proportions upon the wealth of the country. 5. That we recognize the W. C. T. U. as a faithful and powerful influence in the work of moral reforms, the purification of politics and perpetuation of our civil and religious liberty, and declare that all restrictions on suffrage should apply equally to both sexes. 6. We favor the passage of laws prohibiting the alien ownership of lands, and that all lands now held by ratiroads and other corporaclaimed by the government, in accordance with the principles of justice, and held for actual set-sons, paupers and criminals. The time of residence for naturalization should be extended, and no naturalized person should vote within two years after such naturalization. 8. All official fees should be covered into the public treasury, and officials paid reasonable salaries for services actually rendered.

9. We favor the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people.

10. We favor the establishment of postal saving banks by the general government. 11. The speculation in margins, the cornering of grain, money and products, for the arbitrary control of production and prices, should be prohibited.

12. We denounce as infamous the so-called "age of consent" laws, and declare for the removal of all such means of defense for the violation of chastity. 13. We favor the enactment of laws prohibiting the employment of children under fifteen years of age in factories, mines and work-shops.

14. We favor the abolition of contract con-15. With full faith in our cause, as embodied in the foregoing platform, we invite the co-operation of all voters of this country in securing

There were a few scattering votes against the platform, and one or two delegates objected because they were not given an opportunity to discuss the resolutions. There was another song by the Demorest Quartet, and then some hungry delegate moved that the convention adjourn for dinner. The motion was voted down.

MAKING THE TICKET. The work of making the State ticket then began. Two candidates were placed before the convention for the nomination for Governor. One of these was Aaron Worth, of Jay county, who is a farmer and a Wesleyan Methodist preacher; the other was John L. Shields, of Sullivan county. As nearly all the districts were seconding the nomination of Mr. Worth, Mr. Shields withdrew, and, upon his motion, the nomination was made unanimous. It then being balf past 12 the convention took a recess for dinner.

At the opening of the afternoon session nominations for Lieutenant-governor were called for. C. W. Culbertson, of Shelby, John L. Shields, of Sullivan, and Abram Huntsinger, of St. Joseph, were balloted for. Culbertson received 156 votes; Shields, 119 and Huntington 109. There being no choice a second ballot was ordered, at the beginning of which Shields's name was beginning of which Shields's name was withdrawn. Culbertson on this ballot received 219 votes: Huntsinger, 187. Mr. Culbertson is cashier of the First National Bank of Shelbyville.

James McCormick, of Gibson, was nominated for Secretary of State by acclamation. Mr. McCormick is the editor of a pa-per called the Prohibition Era. Three names were plated before the convention for Auditor of State, John W. Bair of Newton, Frank Taggart of Brown and J. W. Cromwell of Allen. On the first ballot Bair received 118 votes. Cromwell 146, Taggart 141; on the second, Bair 98, Cromwell 153, Taggart 171; on the third, Bair 40. Cromwell 143, Taggart 240. Mr. Taggart was declared the nominee. He is a general merchant at Nashville, Brown county, and wore the only straw hat in the convention.

tion. He attempted to make a speech, giving his record as a Prohibitionist. For Treasurer two names were presented. H. H. Moore, of Benton, and J. C. Patterson, of Wayne. The latter withdrew, and Moore was nominated by acclamation. He

18 a prosperous farmer. Somebody tried to place in nomination for the office of Attorney-general Lyman J. Beckett, an innocent and briefless barrister of this city. Eli F. Ritter, however, interposed. He said that Mr. Beckett would do for some other occasion. He is probably saving the young attorney to kill a fiddler wid him. Cutler S. Dobbins, of Martin county, was then nominated for the place by acclamation. Mr. Dobbins is remembered by some of the older residents of the State as the author of a very remarkable poem, "Will you come to the cool, blowing spring?" which had a considerable local circulation at Shoals. John W. Bair, of Newton, who had been denied the nomination for Secretary of State, was nominated Reporter of the Su-preme Court by acciamation. Mr. Jenkins, of Newton, who proposed his name, was not perfectly clear in his mind as to the name of the office. He thought it "Recorder" of the Supreme Court. E. A. Devore of Sullivan, and C. W. Hodgin of Wayne, were named as candidates for the numination for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Hodgin, who was in the Wayne county delegation, rose, and in a neat little speech; withdrew his name, saying that he would be out of the State during the next school year. Mr. Devore was then chosen unanimously. He is a professor at Merom College. The delegate who put the Professor in nomination said the Merom Quartet, which had been singing at the convention, came from that extent, responsible for that.

college, and that the Professor was, to some M. E. Shiel, of Marion, editor of the Phalanx, was nominated State Statistician without opposition. LEFT TO THE COMMITTEE. In the nomination for Supreme and Appellate judges the districts for which candidates were not chosen by the convention were left to be filled by the State central committee. Robert Denny, of Marion, was nominated for the Third district. John Baker, of Knox, John D. Gougar, of Tippecance, and John B. Joyce, of Miami, were nominated as three of the five Appellate judges. This completed the ticket so far as the convention was concerned. Sylvester Johnson, of Marion, and M. W. Harkins, of Randolph, were chosen as electors at large for the national ticket; John Rathff, of Grant, and H-l-n M. G-g-r. of Tippecanoe, as members of the national committee. Mr. Pollock, of Marion, tried to put in nomination for delegate at large to the national convention, Mrs. Ryland T. Brown. The chairman remarked that the nomination was out of order; that the call of the districts was in order. Mr. Jenkins desired to present the name of Eli W. Ritter as delegate at large. Mr. Devore moved a suspension of the rules that Mr. Ritter be the delegate at large and that each district be allowed a delegate. These, with the delegates previously chosen, would make a

Mr. Pollock, of Marion, and Mr. Ballard. of Montgomery, began to declaim against the chair for entertaining Mr. Devore's motion, while ignoring them. Mr. Rose, of Marion, began a little speech which indicated that all the Marion county delegation did not love Brother Ritter. He was interrupted with cries of "Sit down!" and confusion prevailed. Mr. Devore withdrew his motion concerning Ritter, as his selection could not be made unanimous.

Mr. North, of Kosciusko, moved that each delegate be allowed to name one deleeach delegate be allowed to name one delegate, and Marion county be allowed to name the fourteenth delegate. The thirteen delegates then selected were as follows: First district, Frank De Souchet, Vanderburg; Second, O. P. Dunn, Knox; Third, S. F. Pfrimmer, Harrison; Fourth, George W. Hagans, Shelby; Fifth, H. J. Hall, Johnson; Sixth, B. B. Beeson, Wayne; Seventh, Samuel A. Haines, Marion; Eighth, N. G. Carter, Parke; Tenth, W. R. Low, Cass; Eleventh, W. L. Lenfesty, Grant; Twelfth, J. W. Baxter, Dekalb; Thirteenth, S. J. North, Kosciusko.

After considerable wrangling the names

After considerable wrangling the names of Mrs. Brown and E. F. Ritter were voted upon by the convention instead of the matter being left to Marion county. There were cast 384 votes, of which Mrs. Brown received 77 and Mr. Ritter 207. The triumph of the gallant Captain was hailed with great applause. Mrs. Brown was given the empty honor of being alternate to the Captain.

Mrs. H-1-n G-g-r. Miss Hadley, Mrs. Balch and Mrs. R. T. Brown were added to the State central committee. A delegate moved that in case St. John would accept the nomination for President that the delegates from Indiana be instructed to cast the vote of the State for him, and for A. B. Leonard for Vice-presi-

This motion did not meet with approval. Mr. Kinzie, of Boone, objected to the delegates being instructed for any one. "We have," said he, "a man in our midst-Col. NO EXTORTION MISFIT MISFIT WHAT ARE MISFITSP A question is frequently asked by our customers: "What is Misfit Clothing?" This is a MISFIT MISFIT question we always cheerfully answer, and now, through the medium of the press, we propose to explain our great peculiarity to those who have not as yet patronized us. When a Merchant Tailor is stuck with an ordered Suit it becomes, in the language of the trad "A Misfit." The suit may exactly fit the person who ordered it, and yet if he fails to plank down the cash to take it away, it becomes a Misfit. Misfits are really, MISFIT MISFIT then, whatever garments the Merchant Tailor makes to order and then fails to secure his cash for the same. Until recently the Merchant Tailors had no market for these goods, because that would probably lose him a good and prompt-paying patron. Neither could he stick them in his show-window and offer them for sale. The latter step would give him MISFIT MISFIT the reputation of dealing in Ready-made Garments, and would likewise look like indorsing store clothing, and store clothing is something the Merchant Tailor despises. Seeing an opportunity for securing Custom-made Garments for about what the cloth in MISFIT MISFIT them cost, we buy up these goods from the Leading Merchant Tailors at amazingly low figures, which enables us to offer them to you at far less money than an ordinary Ready-made Garment would cost you.
